SPEED

Our rings usually ship the same business day. Engravings do not delay your order. Custom engravings and fingerprint engravings will add a few extra days.

WARRANTY

All Thorsten jewelry is made to the highest standards using quality materials and expert craftsmanship and is warranted to be free of defects. Any jewelry that fails to meet our standards of excellence will be replaced under our warranty. TUNGSTEN

TUNGSTEN CARBIDE RINGS

Resilient, scratch-resistant and heavyweight. Tungsten is a metal that symbolizes both strength and commitment. Widely regarded as one of the toughest things in nature, tungsten carbide rings have become a very popular choice amongst wedding bands. The Swedish translate tungsten as “heavy stone” and has become one of the strongest alloys used to make jewelry. The combination of nickel and tungsten carbide come together to create an exceptional and enduring wedding band fit for those ready to make a statement.

WHITE TUNGSTEN

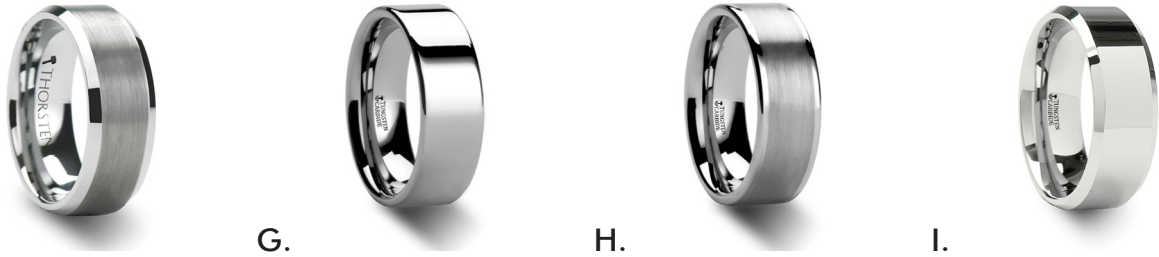

WHITE TUNGSTEN RINGS

Through a special proprietary bonding process, precious metal rhodium from the platinum family combined with tungsten giving it that sleek and classy presence. The durability of white tungsten is unmatched and more scratch-resistant than any other contemporary metal and precious metal wedding band. As a result, white tungsten is the preferred metal choice for grooms seeking an alternative metal wedding band with the bright white radiant look of platinum or white gold.

DINOSAUR BONE TUNGSTEN RINGS

RINGS WITH REAL DINOSAUR BONE INLAY

Even after 65 million years of extinction, dinosaurs have found their way to still roam the earth. The agatized dinosaur bone used is a fossilized dinosaur bone reintegrated with minerals. The minerals give each dinosaur bone inlay its own unique color and cell structure transforming it into a modern work of art.

CARBON FIBER TUNGSTEN RINGS

TUNGSTEN RINGS WITH CARBON FIBER INLAY

Even the slightest glance turns into admiration when attention is drawn to carbon fiber. Sleek and polished, the woven patterns emerge effortlessly for that new age feel. Dating back to the late 1800's and now highly manufactured in other industries such as aerospace and automotive, carbon fiber is twice as strong as steel and exceptionally lightweight. Carbon fiber inlays are lighter in weight, but much more durable and ideal to achieve that refined, urban presence.

BLACK TUNGSTEN

BLACK TUNGSTEN RINGS

Aggressive. Powerful. Formal. Black Tungsten combines the strength and weight of tungsten carbide rings with a deep, dark exterior. One of the trendiest looks in tungsten wedding bands, black tungsten is obtained by shooting tiny particles of titanium zirconium alloy, which is black in color, at an extremely high velocity so that the particles embed themselves into the surface of the tungsten ring. Draw in the eyes with a bit of mystery and evoke authority with our black tungsten.

CERAMIC

LIGHTWEIGHT CERAMIC RINGS

From black ceramic rings to wood inlays, colorful patterns and metallic accents, there are hundreds of unique styles to choose from. They are strong and will not warp out of shape after years of wear because of their high melting point. Along with its shiny and sleek exterior, ceramic is hypoallergenic and perfect for anyone with a metal allergy. A fine addition to accent any wardrobe, you will find that ceramic bands are quite an appealing conversation piece.

DAMASCUS STEEL

DAMASCUS STEEL RINGS

Bend but never break. As two different kinds of stainless steel are contorted and intertwined, our Damascus steel rings take shape to create a one-of-a-kind impression. The grooves created in the rings help the colors set and pop. Through the fire and flames, Damascus steel emerges as a distinct choice in rough and rugged wedding bands.
